

The more things change...

Distributor support is nothing new for Ennis. This ad campaign kicked off the 70's with the promise that Ennis stands by our customers every step of the way. Real employees were used for the photo shoot with signs showing their titles, from sales representative to pressman. The same spirit holds true today, employees at your local Ennis facility ready to provide the service and support to help dealers succeed.

Thanks for helping Ennis achieve 100 Years.

Ennis Facility Celebrates a Large Order — 1930

...To us he's a very important man. His business is solving his customers' problems. He uses experience backed by hard efficient work. He calls it service. And it works!

Ennis knows what good back-up service means to our dealers. That's why there's over 300 years experience behind the people in this picture.

In manufacturing business forms the finest machines, materials, and facilities are not enough; it takes efficient, experienced people who care...and we have them.

Put Ennis service behind you on your next forms problem.

Service is what we put behind our dealer.
